MANAGING TRANSITIONS

These workshops, would be suitable for senior managers who are, for example:

- In or anticipating a career transition or retirement
- In a new organisation and/or forming a new team
- Moving between sectors, e.g. public and private
- New in a Director level or equivalent post and/or undertaking corporate responsibilities for the first time

There will be a maximum of 8 participants on each programme and the desired outcomes include:

- Understanding and learning about transition as a process - that it is predictable and manageable
- Dedicated time to focus and plan the management of your transition
- The identification of an appropriate support network and how it might be secured
